Dedication

We, the Class of 1950, dedicate this yearbook to our manager, Miss Rebecca Hughes, who has guided us these past two years.

Our School

Editors' Foreword

When playing the game of life sometimes we are inclined to forget that which lies behind us, to let the past lie in the past, and the gone be gone forever.

But it is the sincerest hope of the staff that this book will help us to sight the past and bring vividly to our memory the happiness which took place while we were sliding the bases of high school education, and that we may, while remembering, run to higher goals.

Parent-Teacher Association

During the school year the projects the PTA carried out were numerous.

In the past year the association has contributed to the Macon County Tuberculosis Association and to the Illinois Golden Jubilee Scholarship Fund. They have appropriated substantial cash awards for the class having the largest attendance of parents at the regular monthly meetings. It was their privilege to plan an athletic supper. One of the aims of the organization is to send a delegate to the State Convention, expenses paid, and also support financially at least one project that will benefit the majority of the student body.

The program theme for the year, which was "Understanding the Needs of the High School Students", was presented in a variety of monthly programs. Through these programs they brought out points of interest and value about home and family life, safety, school and education, drivers training courses, religion, character building and juvenile delinquency, health, democratic policies with youth, public speaking, and sportsmanship.

Mrs. V. A. Leach, mother of the co-editor, has been in PTA work for thirty years.

P.T.A. officers were:

President.....	Mrs. Harry Morgan
Vice-President.....	Mrs. Newell Braden
Secretary.....	Mrs. Earl Gardner

.....Senior Class History.....

When we started out as the MHS "Green Freshies" team in the fall of '46, thirty-six of us came to bat. Coach Leroy Brandt was in there pitching for us as we came safely to first base. Our Freshman year, the following team was elected: President, Jerry Elliot; Vice-President, Charles Crabtree; Secretary, Marjorie Leach; Treasurer, Patty Stoutenborough; Pep Committee representatives, Stanley Caplinger and Nancy Bolen; and Student Council representatives, Charles Crabtree and Rebecca Jennings.

During this season Richard Lawler, Herbert Banning, Patricia Frank, Howard Kramer, Gloria Hambrecht, and Charles Reed left our team but Mary Ruth Ishmael and David Gardner came as substitutes.

Like all beginners we had our troubles. We were sure the classrooms had been switched on us and our locker combinations changed.

As we came to the second base of our career, Coach Brandt was again in the pitcher's box. He did very well with our players who were: President, Rebecca Jennings; Vice-President, Nancy Bolen; Secretary, Marjorie Leach; and Treasurer Patty Stoutenborough.

Our Pep Committee cheering for us was Janice Randall and John Agee. Sarah McCay and Stanley Caplinger sat in the scorekeeper's box of the Student Council.

Going around this curve we lost Jim and John Agee, Stanley Caplinger, Arnold King, Donald Wise, Charles Crabtree, Eugene Hensley, and Donald Hulsopple; but we headed for third base with Neil Cunningham, Bill McFarland, Sam McGee, Dick Tharp, and Dick Argo.

We we reached third base, Miss Rebecca Hughes took over as pitcher. With her help we elected the following to play for us: President, Dick Tharp; Vice-President, Nancy Bolen; Secretary, Marjorie Leach; and Treasurer, Patty Stoutenborough.

This year our rooters were Jack Schwartz and Joan Warner. Rebecca Jennings and David Gardner were our team advisors on the Student Council.

We lost Bill McFarland and Sam McGee. Margaret Liming and Joan Warner joined us.

The high lights of the year were our play, "Small-Town Romeo", class rings, and the Junior-Senior banquet and prom.

As we started toward home plate we once again elected a team to represent us: President, Dick Tharp; Vice-President, Gene Oldfield; Secretary, Marjorie Leach; and Treasurer, Patty Stoutenborough. Gene Oldfield and Janice Randall were on the Pep Committee. Nancy Bolen and David Gardner were sitting in the Student Council box and keeping our score.

Our class float took third prize in the Homecoming parade.

Now with twenty-eight of us coming into home plate, we have completed our tour around the diamond of high school life.

June 1, 1960

Dear Miss Hughes:

Here it is 1960 and I suppose you have been wondering where our teammates are now, so I scouted around a bit and this is what I found out:

Dorothy Adams has just broken the world typing record with 180 words a minute.

Dick Argo and David Gardner are now teaching agriculture at Maroa High. The school has enlarged greatly since you were there.

Nancy Bolen is sponsoring a baseball team and is also President of Deerington Zinnia Gardens with Roger James as Vice-President.

Bernadine Brown has a beauty shop near the local ball park. She has a reputation for being the best beauty operator in the country.

Elmo Burks is the main country doctor in Maroa now and has a good practice in the summer, mostly the after effects of too much crackerjack at the ball games.

Joe Butler has taken Red Skelton's place on radio and you can't tell the difference.

Neil Cunningham is an outstanding photographer for the Sporting News. Also on the Sporting News Staff is Helen Heim, who is girls' sports reporter.

Jerry Elliot has just received the position as first soloist in the Baseball Band. He closes each program with "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Barbara Grimes is now a celebrated poet. Her poem, "T'Was the Night Before Christmas in Miss Sitter's House", started her on the road to fame and success.

Bill Grubbs is now mayor of Maroa. He has recently presented Darrell Weikle, right fielder for the Cardinals, the valuable player award.

Mary Ishmael is the mayor's efficient secretary.

Rebecca Jennings is celebrating her tenth wedding anniversary this month. She has been blessed with four children.

Marjorie Leach is teaching home economics in Maroa High. In her spare time she plays on a professional girls' basketball team.

Margaret Liming is a home economist and doing quite well. She spends most of her time giving tips to young brides.

Sarah McCay has been married for several years and is living in Maroa where she runs an Ice Corporation.

Eugene Oldfield is manager of the Wagner Malable Iron Works. He received his experience during summer vacations while in high school. He is boss at work but Phyllis is boss at home.

Jean Pope is catcher for the Chicago Bloomer Girls. She realized this talent when watching the Commies play during her high school days.

Merle Query is home after serving in the Navy for several years. In his spare time he works as embalmer for Caplinger Funeral Home.

Janice Randall, now Mrs. Tom Doak, is living on a farm near Maroa. Her family, consisting of three children, just won the Typical Farm Family contest.

Marilynn St. John is the State Advisor of the 4-H clubs in Illinois. She acquired her knowledge while in school.

Patty Stoutenborough is a professional skater and is appearing nightly at one of the largest skating rinks in the world.

Jack Schwartz has taken the place of Gabby Street on the radio and has made quite a bit of money. He has a country estate near St. Louis.

Dick Tharp is All-American half-back for the Chicago Bears. He is now happily married to Mary Lou Pope.

Joan Warner is Mrs. Dale Perring and is living in Kirkwood, Missouri.

Charlotte Widick has taken Lily Pons' place. She sings nightly at the Metropolitan Opera House.

I must close now as it is almost time for Jack Schwartz to broadcast the game between the Chicago Bloomer Girls and the St. Louie Amazons.

Sincerely,

Little Audrey

Senior Class Poem

In the fall of '46
We organized our team
Co-operation was our motto
Success our most important dream.

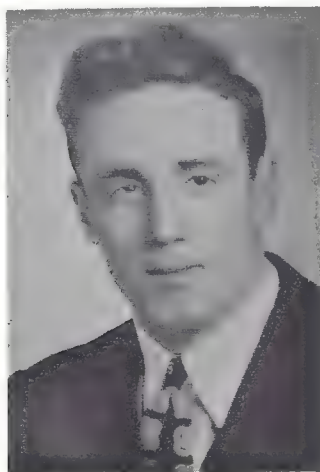

They labeled us "green Freshmen"
But this we didn't mind
For we had hit first base
In the allotted amount of time.

But on the way to second base
Things began to get a little rough
This didn't stop our scoring
For to win you must be tough!

And we didn't stop at second
But batted third base into view
We ran it with flying colors
For Maroa's Gold and Blue.

And now today we see our dream
How the four years have swiftly passed
In some ways we are sorry
In others -- glad it is our last.

And since we have reached home plate
We extend our thanks to everyone
For helping us along our way
'Til our team's work was done.

We, the Senior Class of 1950, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Leroy Brandt, who was our team sponsor for our first two years of high school.

Senior Class Will.

We, the Class of 1950, of Maroa High School, of the city of Maroa, of the county of Macon, and of the state of Illinois, being of sound mind (?) but slightly under the strain of under-work, do make, publish, and declare this our first and last will and testament.

We, the Seniors of Maroa High School, bequeath our ability to learn to the Freshmen; our ability to get along with people to the Sophomores; our leadership to the Juniors; and to the Faculty, a rest and an easy, peaceful future.

I, Dorothy Louise Adams, bequeath my quietness to Janice Matthews, who could profit by it in study hall.

I, Richard Dean Argo, will my grades in agriculture to Donald Braden.

I, Nancy Eleanor Bolen, bequeath my big brown eyes to Kathleen Randall.

I, Joyce Bernadine Brown, bequeath my giggle to Ruth Foulke.

I, Joseph E. Butler, will my ability to tell tall tales in English class to Norman Mayall so next year's English classes won't be too dull.

I, Elmo L. Burks, bequeath my reckless driving to Elwood Brown.

I, Neil E. Cunningham, bequeath my photography ability to Bill Bailey so he may carry on at Maroa High.

I, James Gerald Elliot, bequeath my ability to get along with Argenta girls to Glenn Terrell who has made a good start in that direction.

I, Helen Ruth Heim, give my ability to blush to Esther Dubson to flatter the boys.

I, David Roy Gardner, give my ability to get along in class to Bill Sinkosky.

I, William P. Grubbs, bequeath my ability to get along with everyone to Jack Walters.

I, Barbara Joan Grimes, bequeath my tumbling ability to Sharilyn Cooper who may use it next year.

I, Mary Ruth Ishmael, bequeath my ambitions in the commercial field to Betty June Lanter who likes shorthand so well.

I, Rebecca L. Jennings, give my English ability to Ellen Jennings, to keep it in the family.

I, Marjorie Leach, bequeath my ability as a leader to Janice Marlow who also has talent in that field.

I, Margaret Liming, bequeath my home-economics ability to Juanita Ridgeway as she may need it in a few years.

I, Sarah Alice McCay, bequeath my ability to go steady a long time to my sister, Phyllis, who has a good start.

I, Jean Pope, give my athletic ability to Betty Fenton.

I, Janice Lorene Randall, will my cheerleading ability to Genevieve Hale.

I, Merle Lee Query, bequeath my interest in getting off the subject in history to Dorwin Sullivan.

I, Clarence Eugene Oldfield, give my ability to get along with teachers to Bobby Vaughan.

I, John Arthur Schwartz, bequeath my ability to joke all the time to David Foulke.

I, Maryilynn M. St. John, will my hobby of collecting glass miniatures to Delbert Clifton.

I, Patricia Ann Stoutenborough, bequeath my ability to get on the lunch bus first to Mary Gardner who is always the last one on.

I, Richard Dean Tharp, bequeath my athletic build to Robert Dash.

I, Joan Frances Warner, bequeath my love for skating to Audrey Hanks and hope she enjoys it as much as I do.

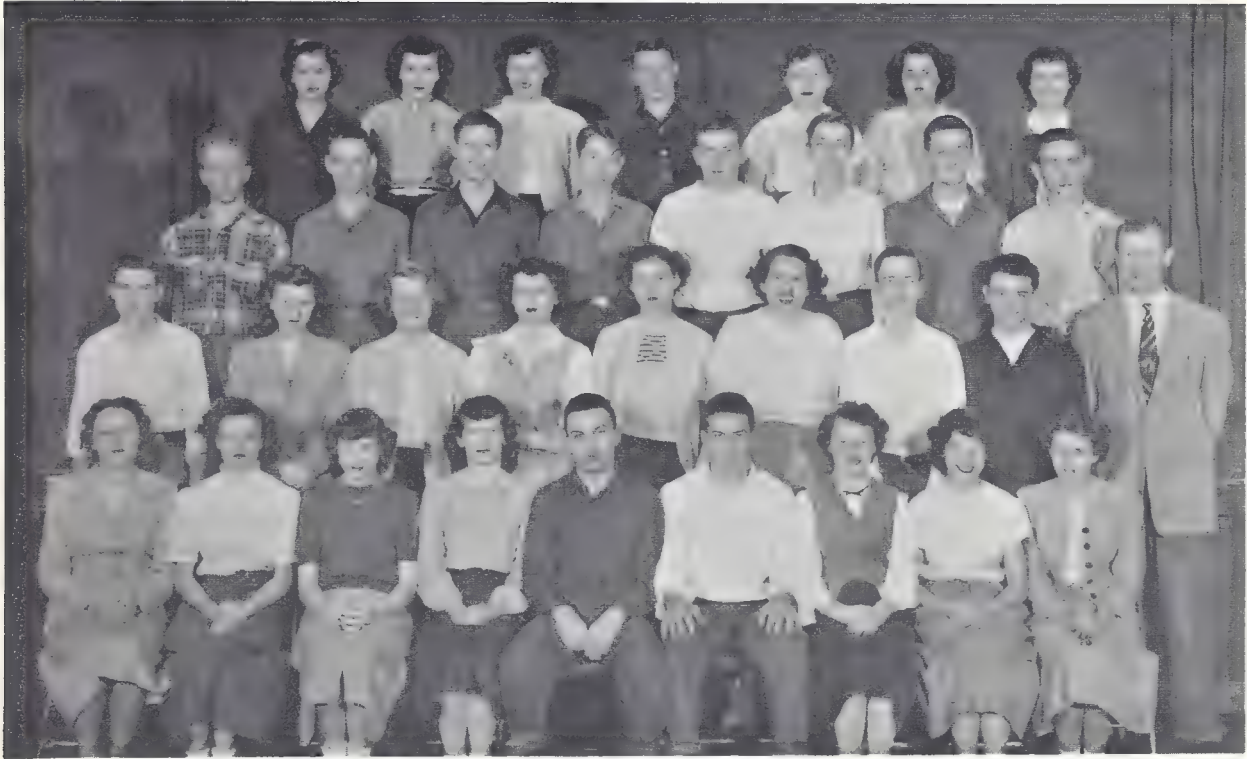

I, Darrell Fred Weikle, bequeath my athletic ability to Jim Parker. We are all waiting to see him play football.

I, Charlotte May Widick, bequeath my singing ability to Delores Andes.

The above and foregoing instrument was, at the date thereof, batted around considerably and believing ourselves to be under obligation to no one, we hereby consent to this final document on this first day of March, 1950.

Their escorts were Jerry Pennypacker, David Gardner, Melbourne Lazell, Bill Grubbs, Jack Walters, Dick Argo, Dick Tharp, and Dorwin Sullivan.

At 10:30 the candidates entered to music played by Jerry Parker's Band. Mrs. Gleen Marlow, the former Betty Smithers, gave her crown to Bill Sinkosky, captain of the football team, who in turn crowned Rebecca Jennings queen. The next dance was for the queen, her court, and their escorts.

The gym was decorated with blue and gold streamers and autumn leaves.

Near two hundred fifty people attended the dance which proved to be the record attendance dance of the year. At 12:30 the band played the final number and another wonderful night was over.

Snow Flake Frolic

The Christmas Dance proved to be the most beautiful dance of the year. There was a false ceiling of red and green streamers and a Christmas tree, gaily decorated, to add a special touch of the holiday season.

"SEVENTEEN IS TERRIFIC"

"Seventeen is Terrific" was presented by the Junior Class, March 31. This play revolved around the actions of a young boy named Chuck Allenby. He was trying desperately to obtain five dollars so that he could take his girl to an important dance. In his first attempt to get the money he worked on a garbage truck. After losing the $5.00 he had earned he borrowed a car, drove to a neighboring town, entered an amateur show, and once more earned $5.00. He had an accident with the car and the repair bill amounted to $4.85. In his last attempt to earn the money he went to a farm owned by his grandmother and found a can of five hundred pennies she once buried there. He returned home only to learn that she had promised them to his younger brother, who promptly claimed them. Later the original $5.00 re-appeared. With this money he purchased tickets, and the play ended happily for everyone concerned.
